

The Kllassens to Mexico

Planting the Gospel Among the Mennonite People

May – June 2008

Dear Praying Friends,

We've been sharing about our work in Washington State, Alberta and British Columbia in the last months. Not having previously been that far west, we really enjoyed our time. We have now been able to visit nearly all the churches in central and western Canada. The remainder of this year will be spent visiting mostly American churches.

Praise God that He has been meeting all our needs. We had a bit of excitement early in the month of May while staying in the Abbotsford area. While spending some time with a friend, our van was broken into and many of our things stolen. Among these items were our display board and video projector. Because we had more meetings scheduled in a few days, we had to scramble to be prepared. There's never a dull moment. Some of you were aware of what happened and prayed and helped in different ways. Thank you so much.

While out visiting with a pastor I ran into a man who was a proclaimed atheist. He said he was now "coming out of the closet" about his beliefs. It seems many are doing that these days. He was of Catholic background. Because both of us were raised in works based religion, a door was open for me to share my testimony and the gospel. God is good.

Some personal news is that we are expecting a new addition to our family towards the end of the year. We are very excited about it, but it makes travel a little more difficult. Mabel has completed her first year of home schooling and is doing well. Bethany is looking forward to next fall when she will begin school and they both will be learning new material.

Our upcoming meetings are scheduled mostly in Montana with a few being elsewhere. Please pray for these meetings. Our support level has risen to 45% and for this we are thankful. We covet your prayers on the following items as well: health and wellness for Cindy and the expected baby; to be used of God to spread the gospel while traveling; for traveling mercies; and for God to enable us to go to the field early next year.

Thank you all for your prayers and encouragement.

Sincerely in Christ,

Will Klassen
